Commissioning sunday!

Three Questions you can ask of every sermon:

1. What is God doing in the story?

In this story/sermon, God is...

2. What is God saying to me?

I hear God's voice saying through the passage/pastor...

3. What do we get to do?

Because God is doing _____, we get to...

1 Peter 4:7-11

7 The end of all things is near. Therefore be alert and of sober mind so that you may pray. 8 Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. 9 Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. 10 Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. 11 If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.

1. Mark the names/titles of all the different people in this passage. Who all is involved? Who is present? Imagine the story from their point of view. Who do you most identify with?

2. Circle all the words that refer to God: names, adjectives, etc.
What does this text teach us about who God is?

3. Underline the verbs

What is God doing? What are others doing? What are we invited to do?

4. Put a box around a sentence, phrase, or word that stands out to you.
What do you think the Spirit is saying to you through this passage?

5. Journal a short prayer of response/thanksgiving
