The renovations and building at Cairn Christian School are beginning, and you can get involved! We are looking for two people who love to hang around construction sites on a regular (daily?) basis to keep their eye on the job site, move and/or clean up after trades, and do simpler jobs that will save us from paying the contractors for extra time.

If you know of someone who would love to be involved in this way, please contact Joyce Koornneef at jkooorneef@cairnchristianschool.ca or Kevin Huinink at khuinink@cairnchristianschool.ca 519-546-9159

SoCo Beach Project ~ July 16: Come out for a Saturday SoCo 'Sup evening in Port Dover that feeds both body and soul. Learn what's up at the SoCo Beach Project. The evening begins at 5:30 p.m. with a local fish and chips supper, followed by a SoCo guest speaker delving into one of the summer themes. Hear stories from current project participants, and how you can support God's work through SoCo. On July 16, Lesli vanMilligen will help us explore "Mission Possible": Whether the world has gotten more complex or we continue to experience post-pandemic languishing, many of us feel like life and ministry have gotten more challenging. We know that with God all things are possible but sometimes what is possible seems elusive. Mission Possible is an interactive experience to unleash holy imaginations and dream new dreams for ministering in a post pandemic world.
