Luke 4:38-44

Three Questions you can ask of every sermon:

1. What is God doing in the story?

In this story/sermon, God is...

2. What is God saying to me?

I hear God's voice saying through the passage/pastor...

3. What do we get to do?

Because God is doing _____, we get to...

Luke 4:38-44

Jesus Heals Many

38 Jesus left the synagogue and went to the home of Simon. Now Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked Jesus to help her. 39 So he bent over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. She got up at once and began to wait on them.

40 At sunset, the people brought to Jesus all who had various kinds of sickness, and laying his hands on each one, he healed them. 41 Moreover, demons came out of many people, shouting, "You are the Son of God!" But he rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew he was the Messiah.

42 At daybreak, Jesus went out to a solitary place. The people were looking for him and when they came to where he was, they tried to keep him from leaving them. 43 But he said, "I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because that is why I was sent." 44 And he kept on preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

1. Mark the names/titles of all the different people in this passage. Who all is involved? Who is present? Imagine the story from their point of view. Who do you most identify with?

2. Circle all the words that refer to God: names, adjectives, etc.
What does this text teach us about who God is?

3. Underline the verbs

What is God doing? What are others doing? What are we invited to do?

4. Put a box around a sentence, phrase, or word that stands out to you.
What do you think the Spirit is saying to you through this passage?

5. Journal a short prayer of response/thanksgiving
