Three Questions you can ask of every sermon:

1. What is God doing in the story?

In this story/sermon, God is...

2. What is God saying to me?

I hear God's voice saying through the passage/pastor...

3. What do we get to do?

Because God is doing _____, we get to...

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

19 On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jewish leaders, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" 20 After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord.

21 Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you." 22 And with that he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

1. Mark the names/titles of all the different people in this passage. Who all is involved? Who is present? Imagine the story from their point of view. Who do you most identify with?

2. Circle all the words that refer to God: names, adjectives, etc.
What does this text teach us about who God is?

3. Underline the verbs

What is God doing? What are others doing? What are we invited to do?

4. Put a box around a sentence, phrase, or word that stands out to you.
What do you think the Spirit is saying to you through this passage?

5. Journal a short prayer of response/thanksgiving
